Electronics Development and Production

Date: Nov 12 - 15, 2019

How do you reach your productronica target group outside of trade show timeframes?

This becomes easy - with TrustedTargeting. It allows you to reach your productronica target group anytime anywhere online on all major advertising networks.

Use TrustedTargeting for example in order to invite your productronica target group to your booth before the show has even started or outside of trade show timeframes to generate high quality leads and boost your brand awareness.

We just need advertising material from you and take care of the complete realization of your online marketing campaign. You can follow the status of your TrustedTargeting campaign anytime in your personal dashboard.

You work together with an agency that supports your online marketing activities? Perfect - we successfully work together with leading media agencies. We're happy to take over the planning of your TrustedTargeting campaign with your agency.
